SCHOOLCRAFT COMMUNITY LIBRARY

February 6-10, 2012

BATTLE OF THE BOOKS—17TH YEAR!!!--Saturday, February 11---The 17th annual Battle of the Books event will be held at the Schoolcraft High School PAC on Saturday, February 11, with Preliminary Battles beginning at 10 a.m. There are 31 teams “battling” this year for the trophy. The teams are from Schoolcraft, Vicksburg and Parchment and consist of 5-7 players from 4th, 5th or 6th grades. The team players and their coaches have been reading and studying since October 21st from a list of twelve pre-selected books. They will come to “battle day” prepared to answer questions about these books and accrue points determining whether their team will go on to Semi-Final Finals later in the day and ultimately to Grand Battle which is held on Thursday, February 16 at 7 p.m. also in the PAC. Come join us and be amazed at these children and their knowledge of books!

USE YOUR HARDINGS CARDS AND HELP THE LIBRARY!!!---Just a reminder for those of you who have the Harding’s escrip cards remember when you are buying your groceries or goodies for the Super Bowl to use that card and help the Library at the same time. Many thanks.

TEEN BOOK CLUB—Thursday, February 23: The Teens are reading My Name is Memory by Ann Brashares, author of The Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants. Their meeting to discuss the book is Thursday, February 23 at 3:30 in the new Young Adult room at the library. Check out a copy today and come join the group to discuss My Name is Memory. Refreshments will be served.

TEEN CORNER:

TEEN READING PICK-----How to Save a Life by Sara Zarr

Jill MacSweeney just wishes everything could go back to normal. But ever since her dad died, she’s been isolating herself from her boyfriend, her best friends—everyone who wants to support her. And when her mom decides to adopt a baby, it feels like she’s somehow trying to replace a lost family member with a new one. Mandy Kalinowski understands what it’s like to grow up unwanted—to be raised by a mother who never intended to have a child. So when Mandy becomes pregnant, one thing she’s sure of is that she wants a better life for her baby. As their world’s change around them, Jill and Mandy must learn to both let go and hold on, and that nothing is easy- or as difficult as it seems.

TEENS AND TWEENS:“CUPCAKE LAB”—Thurs.,February 24, 2012—2-3 P.M.

Sweeten your mid-winter break and test your culinary skills with cupcake decorating at the Library. This free event for Teens and Tweens will be held Thursday, February 24 from 2:00-3:00 p.m. All materials provided, just bring your appetite! Registration is required so call or stop in the Library today.

TEENS ---COMMUNITY SERVICE AT THE LIBRARY???---Are you looking for ways to earn those Community Service hours for graduation requirements? Contact Teen Librarian Faye VanRavensway at 679-5959 email at SCL.YAC@gmail.com. for some ideas on how to earn some of those hours by helping at the library.
